

Several people and organisations have contributed information and pictures to be used in this book and the authors would like to express their thanks to them. Special mention must be made of Denis Malthouse who, together with his wife Ros, organised the Embleton Local History Society for many years and was responsible for gathering much of the information contained herein. We would also like to thank Jose Grieves for her help in finding some of the pictures and identifying the people depicted. Finally a big thank you to Mary Kibble for sorting out the bits and pieces she was presented with into the book you see today.

Some of the information on page 48 has been taken from Dunstanburgh Castle Golf Course – a history by Peter F.C.Gilbert.

In some cases it has proved very difficult to attribute an exact date as to when pictures were taken. The dates printed in the text are the result of examining features shown in the pictures, the date posted, postcard manufacturers' data and local folklore etc. to produce a 'best guess'. The information in this book is included in good faith and is believed to be correct. No responsibility is accepted by the authors or the Parish Council for any errors.

This book is sold on behalf of Embleton Parish Council which will use any profit for the benefit of the village.

Printed by :- Azure Printing, Pegswood, Morpeth

£6.00